REVIEW ENGAGEMENT REPORT

To the Chief and Council
Sucker Creek First Nation #150A

We have reviewed the accompanying schedule of salaries, honoraria, travel, and other remuneration for elected officials of Sucker Creek First Nation #150A as at March 31, 2018.

Management's Responsibility for the Financial Statements

Management is responsible for the preparation and fair presentation of financial information in accordance with Canadian public sector accounting standards and for such internal control as management determines is necessary to enable the preparation of financial information that are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error

Accountant's Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on the accompanying financial information based on our review. We conducted our review in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements, which require us to comply with relevant ethical requirements.

A review of financial information in accordance with Canadian generally accepted standards for review engagements is a limited assurance engagement. The accountant performs procedures, primarily consisting of making inquiries of management and others within the entity, as appropriate, applying analytical procedures, and evaluates the evidence obtained.

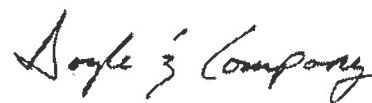

The procedures performed in a review are substantially less in extent than, and vary in nature from, those performed in an audit conducted in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion on the financial information.

Conclusion

Based on our review, nothing has come to our attention that causes us to believe that Sucker Creek First Nation #150A schedule of salaries, honoraria, travel, and other remuneration for elected officials do not present fairly, in all material respects, in accordance with the Indigenous Services Canada Year-End Reporting Handbook.
